Shirley N.Y. (January 6, 2010) — Luitpold Pharmaceuticals, Inc., a New York based U.S. Company of Daiichi-Sankyo Co., Ltd. (Corporate Headquarters: Tokyo, Japan) and PharmaForce, Inc., (Columbus, Ohio, USA), a privately-held fully-integrated specialty injectable pharmaceutical company, announced today that PharmaForce has been acquired by Luitpold.

The FTC cleared the transaction under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvement Act. Under the terms of the agreement, Luitpold purchased 100% of PharmaForce stock and the closing was completed on December 29, 2009. The PharmaForce product line will be marketed by Luitpold's subsidiary, American Regent, Inc.

PharmaForce, Inc., founded in 1999, is focused on the manufacture, development and marketing of difficult to manufacture sterile products and sole source or first-to-market generic injectable products. PharmaForce, headquartered in Columbus, Ohio, operates out of three facilities, including a 40,000 sq ft cGMP compliant sterile manufacturing facility, a 20,000 sq ft R&D facility, and a 20,000 sq ft facility targeted for API manufacturing.

Mary Jane Helenek, President and CEO of Luitpold said, “The acquisition of PharmaForce is another important step in the implementation of Luitpold’s strategic plan to further diversify our product portfolio and generate additional growth for Luitpold and its wholly owned subsidiary, American Regent, Inc. This acquisition provides an immediate expansion of our R&D pipeline, increased manufacturing capacity and establishes a base from which to move forward with different injectable dosage forms to take advantage of the fast growing generic injectable market.”

Luitpold’s legal and financial advisers on the transaction were Sheppard Mullin Richter & Hampton LLP and Aquilo Partners, LP.

PharmaForce's legal and financial advisers were Bricker & Eckler LLP and William Blair & Company, LLC.
